WOMAN ENTERS THE MEXICAN MIXUP

Senora Dolores Medrano and Junta Are Arrested for Aiding Madero.

SOCIETY MAN ALSO HELD

Revolutionary Leader Believed to Be Near Zacatecas Rurale Commander Gone.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Dec. 12.—A woman is now figuring prominently in the revolutionary situation in Mexico. Senora Dolores Medrano has been arrested in Torreon, together with the whole junta that has been operating with her in behalf of Madero. It is believed that she knows of the whereabouts of Madero.

According to the information received here, Madero has been writing her letters and she in turn passed them by couriers to insurrecto chiefs in the northern part of Chihuahua and Coahuila.

The following were with her and now are in the state prison at Torreon:

Jesus De La Torre, Francisco Sacnara, Gregorio Oviedo, Norberto Rivera, Ricardo De La Torre, Carlos Vela Martinez, Ursulo Medrano, Maduel Hernandez and Servero Oviedo.

Society Man Arrested.

A sensation has been caused at Acata de Bejo by the arrest of Arturo Barrera, a society man of Torreon, and others, charged with assaulting Gomez Palacio.

Barrera, it is said, is suspected of having visited Madero recently. In the same connection comes an unconfirmed rumor from the west coast that Madero sailed from San Diego the latter part of November, arriving at Port Manzanillo, state of Colima, and then proceeded to Guadalajara and Zacatecas.

Colonel Kosterlisky, commanding the Sonora rurales, has disappeared from Nilco, and is reported as far south as Sahuarip, which is separated by mountains from the rebel zone in Chihuahua.

Deny Execution Report.

LAREDO, Tex., Dec. 12.—Official denial was made today of a report telegraphed Nuevo Laredo that three alleged revolutionists had been sent from that city to Monterey to be executed.

The report, it is declared, originated with the arrest of two Mexican rurales for fighting, and of a suspected revolutionist. The three were sent to Monterey for trial, it is said.

COMMERCIAL VALUE OF BABIES IS DISCUSSED

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 12.—The commercial value of babies is made the topic of an article in the bulletin of the state board of health, issued today. The article contains an estimate which shows that the average cost of the upbringing of a child from birth to 20 years is $4,150, and its average commercial value at the end of that time is $4,000. These figures are based on the net earning capacity of the average citizen for all the gainful occupations in California as reported in the state labor commissioner's report for 1908 and 1909, capitalized at 6½ per cent interest.

As an investment it is estimated birth to 20 years is $4,150, and its average man is worth $16,000 $4,000 value plus $12,000 gross earnings, and has cost $10,150 for growth and maintenance, or a net gain of $5,850 in 20 years.

The average value of all citizens of the United States was reported by the national conservation committee to be $2,900. Upon this basis the labor element in professional and industrial activities in this state represents $6,115,000,000, or approximately twice the total value of all other sources of wealth. Upon this basis, the article shows, the state is losing through preventable and postponable deaths, expenditures for illness and the like probably $100,000,000 annually.

ENGINEERS MAKE A FORMAL DEMAND FOR HIGHER WAGE

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' ultimatum of higher wages or a strike was delivered today to the Railroad Managers association by President W. S. Stone of the brotherhood. He advised the employers that the recent vote had been 97.6 per cent in favor of a strike if the demands were not granted. No answer was expected by the engineers before tonight.

During the negotiations previous to the strike vote, the engineers' demands approximated an increase of 27 per cent of the present wage; the employers agreed to 10 per cent raise and the engineers receded to a 17 per cent increase basis.

Late today President Stone of the engineers announced no action would be taken before tomorrow.

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 12.—Fearing a walkout of locomotive engineers which may occur in the next 24 hours, the railways of the northwest have been quietly preparing for the struggle. It is given out in local offices that Hill, Harriman and Rockefeller transcontinental lines are prepared for a general walkout of locomotive engineers and have enough reserves on hand at division points to operate passenger trains without delay.

Attorney General's Report Is a Long Story of Frauds

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The annual report of Attorney General Wickersham presented to Congress today, is one long story of frauds against the government.

Trusts, so-called and real, their alleged conspiracies to defeat the law; land frauds, custom frauds, frauds on the internal revenue, rebates, bucket-shops and fraudulent uses of the mails have made 1910 the most strenuous year in the history of the department of justice.

Mr. Wickersham states that only the earnest and enthusiastic work of the men of his force has made the work successful.

"The salaries paid are small," he says, "and the funds available for special counsel do not permit the payment of fees which bear any comparison with those offered by private interests. But notwithstanding those obstacles the department is fortunate in having been able to secure the services of earnest and competent lawyers to whose ability and industry are due the very large measure of success that has attended the management of the legal business of the government during the year."

Actions Pending are Under Way.

Prosecutions for violations of the antitrust law were foremost in the work of the year. Actions, says the attorney general, are now under way or pending against the following so-called trusts:

Tobacco trust.
Standard Oil company.
Sugar trust.
Harriman lines.
Hard coal trust.
Powder trust.
Terminal Railway association of St. Louis.
Towing trust on the Great lakes.
James A. Patton and others, for an alleged corner in cotton.
Beef trust.
Wholesale grocers' trust.
Butter and egg trust.

The following convictions were secured and fines imposed during the year:

Bathtub trust
Paper trust, fined	$57,000
Night Riders fined	5,500
Window glass trust, fined	10,000

After the attorney general's report came from the press, however, the American Naval Stores company, known as the turpentine trust, and six codefendants were convicted of violations of the antitrust law. Two of the individual defendants were sentenced to three months each in jail

WATER IS IN STREETS OF GENOA AND MILAN

GENOA, Dec. 12.—Railroad service to France is still interrupted in consequence of the storms. Several streets in this city are flooded and many houses in country districts are surrounded by water, the occupants making their escape in boats.

Milan, Dec. 12.—Many streets in the suburbs of Milan have been flooded by the overflowing of the river Olona. Several villages in Lombardy are inundated.

ROME, Dec. 12.—Reports from many points in Italy indicate a continuation of the heavy storms, the flooding of towns and villages and serious damage to crops. The victims are few, for the people have had ample warning of the threatening waters.

COL. ZEPH HILL RESIGNS

DENVER, Dec. 12.—Col. Zeph T. Hill, commanding the First infantry of the National guard of Colorado, today tendered his resignation to the adjutant general, saying in his communication that he is unable at present to give to military affairs the time and attention he formerly gave.

Lieut. Col. Edward Verdeckberg is first in line for promotion to the vacancy created by Colonel Hill's resignation.

THE DAY OF THE BIRD

FREIGHT CONDUCTOR INSTANTLY KILLED

Deafened by the noise of the engine on his own train, which prevented him from noticing the approach of a train on the other track, I. P. Kilborn, conductor in charge of a northbound Colorado and Southern freight train, stepped in front of southbound freight No. 101 at Monument yesterday morning and was instantly killed. Kilborn's body was thrown 50 feet by the impact and his skull was fractured and one arm broken. Coroner Law of this city proceeded to the scene of the accident, and after a brief investigation decided that Kilborn's death was due to accidental causes and that no inquest was necessary. The body was taken to Denver, and today will be taken to Michigan for burial.

Kilborn, who was but 30 years old, was unmarried, and has been with the Colorado and Southern for about three years, his home being in Denver.

According to the statement of witnesses, Kilborn was engaged in "cutting" his train over a crossing at Monument when the accident occurred. It appears that he had just started a string of cars over the crossing and had stepped back onto the other track when the southbound train struck him.

PROMISES REPORT SOON

Senator Aldrich Says Tariff Commission Bill Will Be Up Before March 4.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. The fight for a permanent tariff commission began in the Senate today when Senator Beveridge asked what action the finance commission proposed to take upon his tariff commission bill.

Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, replied that the committee would report a tariff commission bill satisfactory to Mr. Beveridge while the latter and Senator Aldrich are still members of the Senate. The terms of both men expire March 4.

Upon this assurance, the Indiana senator did not press the commission issue further. A reasonable time will be given the finance committee to report the bill before the tariff commission advocates precipitate a debate.

Senator Cummins of Iowa tomorrow again will offer his resolution for a change of Senate and House rules to permit the revision of the tariff by sections.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE GETS A GIFT OF $500,000

HANOVER, N. H., Dec. 12.—The gift of half of a million dollars for the enlargement and strengthening of the teaching force of Dartmouth college from Edward Tuck of Paris, who graduated in '82 was announced by President Nicolls today.

This makes a total of more than one million dollars which Mr. Tuck has given to the college in the last 18 years.

THE HUMBLE HEN REIGNS SUPREME

Poultry Show Opens This A. M.—Prospects for a Big Success.

The annual show of the Pikes Peak Poultry association will be officially thrown open to the public at 8 o'clock this morning, and that it will be the most successful one in the history of the organization is indicated by the fact that the show this year is a third larger, in every way, than it was last year. The managers of the show have called attention to the fact that school children are to be admitted to the show free, with the proviso that they present tickets which are now being distributed among them.

Last night most of the entries were in place, and the evening was given over to weighing the birds. One hundred and forty Barred Plymouth Rocks have been entered and the judges will start judging these this morning. They will then judge the White Plymouth Rocks, and later all other white birds. Altogether there are 640 entries at the show. Some of the poultry fanciers came long distances to make entries at the show. Three are here from Denver, one each from Calhan, Pueblo and Fort Morgan and three from Fountain. D. F. Heinlich of Jacksonville, Ill., who arrived in the city yesterday, is the official judge.

Entries in the egg exhibition contest a dozen white and a dozen brown eggs must be in by 9 o'clock this morning.

The egg-laying contest opens at 8 o'clock this morning. There are seven pens of six birds each. A. H. Hunt will count the eggs and have charge of the contest during the period of the show, which closes Saturday night at 10 o'clock. The show is being held in the Independence building, in the rooms formerly occupied by the post-office.

VOICE WINS A FORTUNE

FULTON, Mo., Dec. 12.—Peculiarities in the voice of the late Hugh Smith of Calla, May county, figured largely in proceedings today by which W. J. Smith of Lynchburg, Va., established his claim to the Hugh Smith estate, valued at $10,000.

Smith's voice was peculiar. One minute his words were spoken in a whisper and the next in a high, piercing shriek.

When W. J. Smith presented his case in the circuit court old residents of the county could hardly believe they were not listening to Hugh Smith's voice. There was the old familiar variation in pitch now up and now down. Witness said Hugh Smith was his uncle and his voice with other evidence he gave satisfied the court the claim was good.

MOSCOW OPENED TO JEWISH MERCHANTS

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 12.—An imperial order has been published, confirming a resolution recently adopted by the cabinet permitting Jewish merchants of the first guild to reside in the city and province of Moscow.

Emperor Nicholas, on November 1, approved the opening of new sections for the residence of Jews. Heretofore legal residence of Jews had been restricted to that section of the Polish provinces and the Ukraine limited by the original Jewish segregation law and known as "the pale."

The new sections embraced 12 districts in the provinces of Vitebsk, Volhynia, Mohilev, Poltava and Kherson, and the town of Yekaterinodar. The action of the government resulted from petitions of the inhabitants of the newly opened localities who desired the admission of Jewish residents as a means of improving local business conditions.

PEARCE TELLS KENEHAN QUIT "HANGING AROUND"

DENVER, Dec. 12.—Secretary of State James B. Pearce today gave notice to State Auditor Rhody Kenehan that if he wanted to make further examination of the books of the secretary of state's office it would be necessary for him to secure an order from the court as he (Pearce) would not consent to the auditor's experts hanging around any longer. Kenehan answered that he would not apply to the courts but that he would simply stay away.

This ultimatum of Pearce is the outcome of the row between the two state officials which resulted in a break several months ago, but which was finally patched up by the governor.

Pearce intimates that Kenehan's men are not being sent to his department in the line of official duty, but to spy on him.

"He wants to harass me," said Pearce today, referring to the auditor. "If there had been anything wrong, Kenehan's accountants should have been able to find it in six months."

"I cannot get action in court before my term expires," said Auditor Kenehan. "I will let it go. If Mr. Pearce will not let me examine his books, I shall let the public judge as to the reason."

Later in the day Public Examiner J. B. Foley issued a subpoena duces tecum, directing Pearce to bring all the books, receipts, accounts and papers of the secretary of state's office to the auditor tomorrow at 9 a. m. Pearce declared he would ignore the subpoena on the ground that Foley had no authority to issue such a subpoena and that he would take the matter up to the supreme court before he would produce the records of his office.

IMPORTANT RULING BY SUPREME COURT ON SHERMAN LAW

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—Announcing the broad rule that a conspiracy under the Sherman antitrust law may be a "continuing offense," instead of an offense limited to the formation of the conspiracy and possibly overt acts thereunder which would revive the conspiracy, the United States supreme court today went a long way toward dispelling doubt as to the law.

The direct result is that Gustave E. Kissel of New York, and Thomas B. Harned of Philadelphia, must answer further to the indictment brought in 1909 in New York, charging them with conspiracy with the American Sugar Refining company and others to drive the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company out of business.

Justice Holmes today in announcing the opinion of the court, took up for consideration the argument that a conspiracy is a completed crime as soon as formed, as would be the case where a conspiracy were merely a contract.

"It is true," said Justice Holmes, "that the unlawful agreement satisfied the definition of the crime, but it does not execute it. When the plot contemplates bringing to pass a continuous co-operation of the conspirators to keep it up, and there is such continuous operation, it is a perversion of natural thought and of natural language to call such continuous co-operation a cinematographic series of distinct conspiracies rather than to call it a single one."

Holding that a conspiracy in restraint of trade is different from a contract in restraint of trade, Justice Holmes summed up the decision in this manner:

"The indictment charges a continuing conspiracy. Whether it does so with technical sufficiency is not before us. All that we decide is that a conspiracy may have continuance in time, and that, whereas here, the indictment, consistently with the other facts, alleged that it did so until the date of filing, the allegations must be denied under the general issue and not by a special plea.

"Under the general issue all defenses, including the defense that the conspiracy was ended by successive abandonment, or otherwise, more than three years before July 1, 1909, will be open and unaffected by what we now decide."

CHARLTON BEGINS FIGHT AGAINST EXTRADITION

Certiorari Proceedings in U. S. Circuit Court at Trenton, N. J., Next Monday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The state department has issued to the Italian ambassador the warrant for the surrender of Porter Charlton, charged with the murder of his wife at Lake Como.

The case has now passed out of the hands of the department. Its final adjudication depends upon the result of the habeas corpus proceedings instituted in New Jersey.

Certiorari Proceedings.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 12.—Efforts to prevent the extradition of Porter Charlton were carried another step here today. Notices were served on Judge John V. Blair and Prosecutor Pierre P. Garven of certiorari proceedings to be held before Judge Rallstab in the United States circuit court at Trenton, N. J., next Monday.

A writ of habeas corpus was served on the sheriff for the production of Charlton at Trenton on that day.

Charlton's lawyers said they would appeal to the United States supreme court should Judge Rallstab's ruling be adverse.

AGED ATTORNEY MURDERED

Nathan S. Hyde of Chicago, Former U. S. Commissioner in Wisconsin, The Victim.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Nathan B. Hyde, former United States commissioner for the southern district of Wisconsin, and at one time a member of the New York bar, was found dead in his home on the west side tonight. His head was cut open by a blow from a crowbar found near the body. The house was ransacked and the police say robbery was the motive for the murder.

Mr. Hyde was 76 years old and had lived here since 1903. His wife died before he came here and since then he lived alone. The police say neighbors of the dead man declare he was wealthy. He had a nephew in this city, Dr. David L. Hyde.

Mr. Hyde was a graduate of the Albany law school and practiced law at Sheboygan, Wis.

DUMA IS INDIGNANT

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 12.—Opposition parties in the duma have united in addressing an interpellation to the ministers of the interior and justice regarding the reported flogging of political prisoners in Siberia.

It is charged that the government is taking a brutal revenge on its political opponents and by so doing is disgracing Russia. It is reported that Sasonoff, the assassin of Von Plehve, has died in Searunts prison as a result of flogging or self-inflicted injuries.

NOMINATION IS CONFIRMED AT ONCE

Senate Pays Unusual Honor to Former Member Named for Chief Justice.

WYOMING JUDGE ELEVATED

Knapp to Head New Court of Commerce—White Only Name Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The Senate today confirmed the nomination of Edward Douglass White of Louisiana, to be chief justice of the United States supreme court.

President Taft's promotion of Associate Justice White was received by the Senate shortly after it convened. The Senate interrupted business to go into executive session to make the necessary confirmation, as the rule requiring reference of nominations to committee does not apply in cases where the appointees have served as members of the Senate. Chief Justice White's commission will be issued before another session.

Accompanying Judge White's name in the list of nominations sent by the president was that of Judge Willis Van Devanter of Wyoming, now a judge of the Eighth judicial circuit, and Joseph Lamar of Georgia, formerly of the supreme court of his state, to be associate justices of the supreme court of the United States.

No action was taken in these cases, although there is no apparent opposition, nor was an attempt made to confirm the judges named for the new court of commerce. All were referred to the Senate judiciary committee.

The Senate committee on interstate commerce will meet tomorrow to consider the nominations of C. C. Mc-Chord of Kentucky and R. H. Meyer of Wisconsin for membership on the interstate commerce commission. It is expected there will be no serious opposition to the confirmation of either, but as the Senate has no first hand knowledge that Charles A. Knapp named as the presiding judge of the court of commerce, intends to retire from the commission, the nominations will go over until another meeting. The chances are no action will be taken until after Judge Knapp has been confirmed for the position to which he was appointed today.

Hale Insists on Action.

The Senate surprised itself by its speedy action upon the nomination of Chief Justice White. In less than an hour after the name had been received from the White House the Senate had disposed of the nomination.

Immediately after the disposal of the routine business of the morning hour Senator Hale moved that the Senate go into executive session. So anxious were several senators who had other business they considered pressing, that they rushed to the side of the Maine member to protest.

"I am going to have White confirmed," he said.

"Nonsense," several of them responded in unison. "You can't possibly do it."

"Wait and see," he replied, and continued to insist on his motion.

When at last the doors were closed the nomination of Mr. White was laid before the Senate. Mr. Hale did not wait until the reading of other nominations, but immediately moved confirmation of Justice White.

Voices were raised in protest, but Mr. Hale took the floor. He spoke for about 15 minutes, dealing with Mr. White's demonstrated fitness for the place and dwelling on the fact that he had been a member of the Senate.

The only voice raised in opposition to immediate confirmation was that of Senator Heyburn. He declared himself opposed to the selection of any one of the associate justices as contrary both to precedent and policy. The Idaho senator eventually surrendered gracefully, and when the vote was taken joined his voice with all others in the affirmative.

Justice White was visibly affected when he learned of the Senate's prompt action. He was on the bench when a group of senators called to congratulate him. He met them in an antechamber and when he resumed his place his eyes were brimming with tears. He showed further emotion when, on the adjournment of court, the entire Louisiana delegation in Congress, headed by Senators Foster and Thornton, called to congratulate him. Late today the new chief justice called at the White House to pay his respects to the president and to thank him for the honor.

Frederick W. Lehmann of Missouri was confirmed today by the Senate to be solicitor general of the United States. He succeeds the late Lloyd W. Bowers, who died in office.

Judicial Dissolutions

The following are the nominations sent to the Senate today by the President:

To be chief justice of the United States supreme court, Associate Justice Edward Douglass White of Louisiana.

To be associate justices United States supreme court, Judge Willis Van Devanter of Wyoming and Associate Joseph Rucker Lamar of Georgia.

To be judges of the United States court of commerce:

Martin A. Knapp, new chairman of

Not Enough Time for Basketball, Says Committee

Reasons for the decision not to have Colorado college represented in the interscholastic basketball league this season were given out yesterday by members of the college athletic committee.

They are in effect, the same as those published several days ago in The Gazette, when it was learned that the faculty would not sanction a basketball team. Colorado College heads take the position that the various athletic seasons are already long enough and that the time now available should be devoted entirely to college work. Shortly after the holidays, preliminary training will be started for the track and baseball men, which will also require a certain amount of time that might otherwise be devoted to studies.

"PAT" POWERS LET OUT AS PRESIDENT OF EASTERN LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The Eastern league of professional baseball clubs met in annual session today at the Hotel Victoria, ousted "Pat" Powers of Jersey City from the presidency which he had held for 18 years, and elected E. G. Barrow of Toronto, recently manager of the Montreal club.

The session was attended and closely watched by the club owners of the two major leagues. The national agreement expires next season and there is expectation that the Eastern, now in a prosperous condition, will demand recognition as a major league.

For months it had been apparent that there was opposition to Powers, but he had hoped to manage matters to the last and then retire. But baseball's politics are complex, and Powers, who has been credited with building up the Eastern league, was summarily denied any office and ignored.

Powers had called the meeting for noon, but when that hour came he refused to call the members to order, saying he expected a document from his office. The recalcitrants waited until 1:30 p. m. and then Jacob Stein, president of the Buffalo club and vice president of the league, ordered that the meeting be called. He, with other representatives, went to the meeting room and sent for Powers. Powers refused to go upstairs. The five clubs then elected Barrow president and adjourned for half an hour. When Powers appeared he called the meeting to order and issued a statement of retirement.

With the new president selected, the league decided on a 154-game schedule for next season, which is to start on April 20. Several protests and other business will be considered tomorrow.

The National league meeting is set for tomorrow.

BURDENS LIFTED

Finds Colorado Springs Work Relief Proved by Tests of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden;
Nervousness wears one out;
Rheumatic pain; urinary ills;
All are kidney burdens
Daily effects of kidney weakness.
No use to cure the symptoms.
Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.
Cure the kidneys and you cure the cause.
Relief comes quickly—comes to stay.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills.
Prove it by your neighbor's case.
Here's Colorado Springs testimony.
The story of a permanent cure.

Mrs. N. F. Baird, 205 N. Corona street, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "Though over two years have passed since I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, I have nothing to retract from the statement I gave in their favor. I have in the meantime advised their use in other cases of kidney trouble and I know that they have given entire satisfaction. I was bothered off and on by pains in the small of my back and though I was uncertain as to the cause, I rather attributed it to colds which had affected my kidneys. I suffered intensely and was unable to find relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the D. Y. Butcher Drug Co. They went directly to the seat of my trouble and I have not been bothered to any extent since."

RE-ELECTION COACH ROTHGEB COMES UP

Whether Claude G. Rothgeb will remain as athletic director of Colorado College next year or not, will be decided at a meeting of the college athletic board tomorrow afternoon. According to a member of the board, everything possible will be done to keep him. Rothgeb has only a one-year contract with Colorado College and it is said that Denver university is so anxious to secure him that they are making a stronger bid than the local institution.

"We want to keep Rothgeb with us and everything will be done to keep him. Unless my predictions go wrong, he will stay with us," said the board member.

The board met yesterday afternoon to pave the way for the meeting tomorrow night, which is one of the most important of the year. In addition to the decision about Rothgeb, a football student-manager will be selected and suggestions will be made to Dean E. S. Parsons for discussion at the state conference meeting to be held during the Christmas holidays. Dean Parsons has asked for suggestions for changes in the conference rules, and these will be brought up at the conference meeting. It is expected that tomorrow's meeting will be a long one and the meeting yesterday was to get rid of the details which might make the meeting extend far into the night.

The selection of a football manager for 1911 will be made from the assistant managers, A. J. Gregg, George Statton and G. B. Seldomridge.

HORSE RACING AROUND GOTHAM FAR FROM DEAD

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—That horse racing in the metropolitan district is not yet dead, despite the enforcement of the antibetting law, that there will be contests between the thoroughbreds over the Sheepshead bay course for at least three seasons to come, is indicated by the Coney Island Jockey club's call today for nominations for the futurity of 1913.

LAYERS MAKE KILLING

PENSACOLA, Fla., Dec. 12.—Heavy backing for Carew in the closing race caused his price to drop from 4 to 1 to 6 to 5 today. His failure to get a portion of the purse enabled the layers to have a big profit for the day's results.

JUDGE REBUKES MUNN JURY

OURAY, Colo., Dec. 12.—District Judge Sprigg Shackelford today sentenced Jesse Munn to from seven and a half to eight years in the penitentiary for the murder of the night marshal of Telluride, but in so doing he administered a rebuke to the jury which sat in the case. Judge Shackelford declared that Munn should have been more severely dealt with or freed entirely. He expressed the belief that it was such verdicts as rendered in the Munn case that disgusted people with administration of justice in criminal cases.

STORIES OF BRAZILIAN MUTINY EXAGGERATED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—To correct conflicting reports regarding the mutiny in Rio Janeiro, the Brazilian embassy here today furnished the pre text of a cable from Rio Branco, the Brazilian minister of foreign affairs.

In substance this denies the accuracy of statements published in London, that the mutiny involved the crews of all the seven men-of-war in the harbor.

As a matter of fact, the cable says, it affected only the soldiers of the marine barracks in the fortress on the island of Cobras and several sailors of the scout cruiser Rio Grande.

The mutiny of the ship was quickly suppressed by the captain and the loyal members of the crew. There was no mutiny on the other vessels in the harbor.

We wish to express our thanks to our friends for their kindness during the recent sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother.

THE CARE OF THE TREES.

THE crowning glory of a well-kept city is its trees. A street may be bordered with handsome residences surrounded by grass and flowers; it may be paved and parked, but if its shade trees are lacking either in numbers or in quality there is something wanting in the picture, and that something is essential to its completeness.

Forty years ago the founders of Colorado Springs recognized the peculiar importance of this fact. The townsite was barren except for an occasional cottonwood along the banks of the creek. Nor was tree planting the comparatively inexpensive procedure that it is today, for saplings had to be brought from the East and the freight charges were heavy. The late John Potter, who was a member of the townsite company, contributed an article to The Gazette a few years ago in which he told of the company's difficulties in getting shade on the barren prairie. It was one problem to get the trees here, and another to keep them alive after they were planted, for the irrigation system of that day was not what it is now. Nevertheless the company soon found that lots bordered by a row of sickly cottonwood saplings could be sold at a price from 50 to 100 per cent higher than treeless lots, even though the shade was a prospect yet to be realized.

The abundant shade in Colorado Springs today is the result of the forethought of the founders of the Fountain Colony. But it happens that nearly all of our trees are cottonwoods and the cottonwood is a short-lived variety. At 25 or 30 years it has reached its prime, and at 40 it is an old tree with slender chances of surviving for another decade. Every spring for several years past some of the biggest and best cottonwoods in Colorado Springs have been sacrificed, and the number ready for the ax is constantly getting larger. Indeed, the shade trees are dying so rapidly that it will not be many years until there is a pronounced difference in the appearance of the streets. Meanwhile, what is being done to replace them?

NEED OF BETTER CARE. Obviously, the work of planting should have been started at least ten years ago, for the elms, the hard maples and other varieties with which the cottonwoods are being replaced are of slow growth. There are a few elms in North Park which were planted eight or ten years ago and are still mere saplings. If the city were to start on a comprehensive program of tree planting even now a period of several years would elapse between the death of the old cottonwoods and the maturity of the new trees in which the streets would be comparatively shadeless.

But some such program is essential, and now that a forestry department has been established with a graduate forester in charge it ought to be started without unnecessary delay. And right here it is well to emphasize the point that this matter ought to be considered scientifically. Last Sunday we published an article by the Secretary of the Newark Shade Tree Commission describing the methods adopted in New Jersey of fostering tree culture in the cities. As this writer shows, it makes all the difference in the world whether the care of trees is intrusted to competent men or to tree butchers whose only idea of their work is to dig a hole in the ground, stick a sapling in it and then make an annual visit to lop off a few branches, generally the wrong ones. The latter method has been practiced so extensively in Colorado Springs that some of the best trees have been mutilated until their usefulness and beauty are almost destroyed.

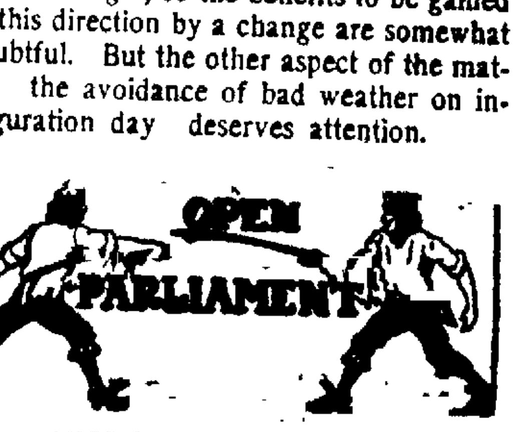

The City Forestry Department, if it coöperates with the Park Commission, can accomplish a great deal of good in preserving and augmenting the beauty of the streets. Perhaps, eventually, it can produce as good results as have been obtained in New Jersey by the shade tree commission.

THE INAUGURATION DATE.

ONE of the interesting matters that will be considered by the present session of Congress is the proposal to change the date of the inauguration of the President from March 4 to a later date, preferably some time in May. To make this change it would be necessary to amend the constitution. A resolution to submit the amendment to the States for ratification has already passed the Senate, and last spring it was lost in the House by only one vote. Under these conditions it is probable that the resolution will be passed, and if this action is taken at the present session it would be possible to ratify the amendment in time for it to become effective at the next inauguration.

There are two principal contentions in favor of changing the date of the inauguration. The climate of Washington is usually at its worst in March, and everybody who has had experience with it knows that the worst of the Washington climate is pretty bad. Occasionally a President is inducted into office on a fair day but this is the exception; the rule is quite the reverse. It is regrettable that the most notable festivity in the American political calendar should be so generally marred by inclement weather, especially as the ceremonies are held mostly in the open air. Last year the weather was so bad that the program had to be abandoned and President Taft took the oath of office inside the Capitol. But after all the worst aspect is not the spoiling of the pageant or the discomfort of the spectators, but the list of victims claimed by pneumonia, induced by exposure at the inauguration ceremonies.

The other principal argument in favor of the change is that it would lengthen the short session of Congress, which, under the Constitution is limited to the three months between December 4 and March 4. After deducting a liberal holiday intermission there is scant time for the consideration of public business, especially since the regular appropriation bills always take up at least six weeks. It is the custom of legislative bodies, and Congress is no exception, to put off important business until the last few days and then finish it by holding night sessions and making a general rush. Perhaps this custom would still be adhered to even if the session were two months longer, so the benefits to be gained in this direction by a change are somewhat doubtful. But the other aspect of the matter the avoidance of bad weather on inauguration day deserves attention.

AMERICANS AND JAPANESE.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

With your permission I desire to recall to the readers of The Gazette the editorial in your issue of Sunday under the caption, "Again the Color Line," in which is discussed at length the recent absurd and very un-American incident at a fashionable California resort. Admiral Yashiro, a man selected by Japan for his ability and cleverness as a naval commander, had honored the people of the little California city by remaining off the harbor of the town sufficiently long to be entertained. The men of the Japanese navy, like those of every navy of the world, are of two classes. The officers of the Japanese fleet are from among the first families of the Nipponese nation. The men behind the guns and in minor positions are perhaps as in the case with the American navy—representative of the nation at large and not trained in the ways of social life.

The Japanese gentlemen who are wearing the uniform of the imperial navy are probably, with very few exceptions, men who are well versed in all that pertains to social perfection. The tint of the skin may be slightly different, but from my knowledge of Japanese I believe that they will measure up to the standard which Americans set for society and as "gentlemen." They are as polished, as clever, as perfectly educated in arts, sciences, literature and all that goes to make men acceptable in the world as if they were natives of old Boston. And as to manners and dress, I doubt if our Americans can ever match the first or surpass the latter.

Admiral Yashiro and his men, guests of the people of California, were openly, gratuitously insulted—and grossly so, by a few so-called "buds" of society, whose training in social politeness may at least be called into question at this time.

Were Admirals Dewey or Evans allowed by the people of Japan to suffer such social slight during many visits to Japan? Has ever an American of social or official standing been so grossly insulted in Japan? Have not many of our people been received and entertained by the men and women of the little island which has shown itself to be worthy of a place in the councils of the nations?

Yet, Admiral Yashiro and his men have suffered at the hands of these misguided society people of the little southern California town only what has been measured out hundreds of times in more vulgar form to Japanese men upon American soil.

It is un-American and makes me and thousands who know and have learned to have high regard for Japanese people, ashamed of our own conduct as a nation. Such incidents are worthy only of severest censure.

Intimations that Japanese polish and culture are only "outward" and that Japanese men and women are not worthy of the closest personal companionship and confidence are merely haphazard statements based upon a lack of knowledge of the people themselves. The so-called "color line" cannot now and never will apply to Japanese people of the better classes, nor will it apply to Chinese of the same classes. At least this is the opinion of those who have pushed aside prejudice long enough to see the truth and to know the people. As well might we draw a "color line" between the uncouth lower classes of Americans and the so-called better classes. There are Japanese coolies and Chinese coolies but who will say that we haven't the identical class in this country if we but look about.

Mrs. "Bob" Evans, whose residence in Japan extended over five years, recently stated to the writer: "This talk about Japanese not being our equals is absurd. Why, they were perfect in arts and sciences while our forefathers were still wielding stone clubs." No more vigorous defenders of Japanese are to be found than the men who have actually lived among the people and know them.

A man who claimed to be a naval officer, once said to me. "The Japanese are clever but as a nation they are thieves."

When pressed to explain his business experience with them he stated that he was the chief engineer of an army transport and his total experience with dishonest Japanese had been that coolie coal passers were prone to steal brass pieces from the transport.

Another man who spent an hour besmirching the moral characters of Japanese and relating personal experiences while a resident of Japan, was challenged by the writer to prove his dastardly assertions. He finally admitted that he had never personally lived in Japan but had been a tourist visitor once. His information came from a friend (whose name he could or would not give) and he knew it was fact.

Attacks against Japanese are most often led by labor unions or anarchistic Socialists or by those who have no intention of doing wrong by advocating or rehashing what they hear from others. A leading business man of San Francisco—a hotel proprietor said to me: "I hate the Japanese." When asked why, he admitted that he knew nothing of them and never wanted to know. A leading hotel man of Seattle stated on the contrary that he would not employ any except Japanese for the better class of work in his hotel, "because," said he, "they are dependable, honest and always polite."

Race prejudices as well as religious prejudices are mental conditions that should not belong to progressive, thinking people, and my experience is that they do not exist in the minds of men and women who harbor in their hearts a true sense of justice, mercy and love for fellow man. I do not defend Japanese people who are unworthy, any more than I defend Americans who are unworthy. I am glad to say that my knowledge of Japanese men and women leads me to suspect the kind of Americanism which needlessly hurts by its false claim of superiority, mentally, morally or socially—considering class against class.

May I take this opportunity also to thank you for the many fair statements of your editorial and to request in the name of those who regard these people for their true worth, that in head writing you avoid the use of the term "Jap," which is looked upon by Japanese as an insult to their nationality, as much so as are the terms we sometimes thoughtlessly apply to Italians or Chinese and fully as meaningless.

ALONG WITH THE UPLIFT.

From the Fall River News.

The town of Gary having noted that the bath tubs in the model tenements there have been used as coal bins, etc., will remove them and substitute shower baths instead. Fall River sympathizes with Gary, as does probably every city that tried to lift the downtrodden from the soil by lifting the soil from the downtrodden. Fall River boasts of bath tubs used as vegetable gardens and as potato bins. But the shower bath should not phase us. Not long since the city water department found that one customer ran the water all night to keep some beer cool and another kept it running because it made the canary sing. The possibilities of shower bath apparatus along these lines are at least as ample and as varied.

THE REFORMER

I have my views of right and wrong, and they are strict and straight; no man can my approval gain, unless he goes my gait. He must admit that I'm the fount of virtue and of truth; I am a beacon for the old, a signpost for the youth; he must admit that when I speak all little dogs should hush; when I say "Halt," he'll straightway stop; when I say "Go," he'll rush. And if he should dispute my word, or in obeisance fail, the proper place for him to be is in the county jail. Some spineless creatures say to me that suasion is the goods to touch the hard and sinful hearts in human neighborhoods; they say that men are mostly good, and open to appeal: but I believe in hanging men, and breaking them on wheels. Alas, a soft, decadent age has banished block and rack; we cannot boil offenders now, or drown them in a sack! We cannot use the iron boot, or flog them or impale, but we can surely fashion laws to send them all to jail!

The Daily Chit-Chat

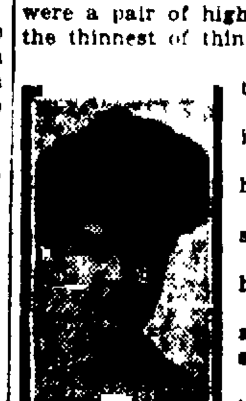

By RUTH CAMERON

Saw the first of the winter ostrich girls the other day.

What's a winter ostrich girl?

Why just one of those silly little ladies who thinks to keep warm by burying the top of herself in warm furs and broadcloths away from the attack of the cold and leaving her poor little feet clad just as they are in July.

This specimen had a big cuddly shawl fur that made you warm just to look at it, a fur toque and yes, actually—fur lined gloves, while on her feet were a pair of high-heel suede leather pumps and the thinnest of thin lisle stockings.

I just longed to tell that girl two things.

Firstly that she was tempting providence.

At which she would probably have laughed.

Secondly that she looked absolutely silly.

At which she would doubtless have been very angry.

But it would have been just as true as the other all the same.

For some reason or other—the psychology of it is quite too deep for me—a great many young girls seem to think that it is smart and attractive looking to wear abominably thin clothes in winter.

I remember that in my school-girl days it used to be considered a sort of patent of nobility to wear the same clothes in winter as you did in summer, and that all the girls who dressed themselves with any regard to the seasons were looked down upon as "old fashioned."

And the smartest thing of all was to wear these low shoes and gossamer stockings all winter.

Personally I think it looks the opposite from smart. I think a girl, with such out of season footgear looks really poverty stricken, as if she could not afford any winter shoes and had to make her summer ones do. I feel like offering to buy a nice heavy pair of boots for her. How I'd like to try that sometime with some stylishly dressed "missie." Only I'm afraid I'd better have an ambulance at hand.

Everyone acknowledges that part of the beauty of any garment is its appropriateness. The prettiest gown is spoiled by being worn on the wrong occasion. No one can dislike the feeling and appearance of high shoes as compared with low shoes any more thoroughly than I do, but that doesn't make me blind to the fact that, shorn of the element of fitness by the winter season, low shoes are no longer pretty.

Let me ask some of the pump devotees something.

What's your favorite kind of furs? Let's say black lynx. It's mine, so I think of it first. Then, you regard a magnificent set of silky black lynx furs as something very much to be admired. Now, if next July you should see a woman coming down the street with a muslin gown and a handsome set of black lynx, would you call her a well-dressed woman?

Of course there are a lot of things that I might tell you that the doctors say about thin shoes, how much more ill-health they are the cause of than the much-touted corsets ever thought of being.

But that probably wouldn't interest you.

That argument would merely appeal to your common sense while this is aimed at your desire to look well.

So I rest my case on this.

U. S. Representative Believes Diplomatic Relations May Safely Be Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The present government at Nicaragua rests upon a stable foundation and the United States may safely resume diplomatic relations with that country, in the opinion of Thomas C. Dawson, who represented the state department on a special mission to Nicaragua.

It is generally believed that when Dr. Salvador Castrillo, who is en route to this country as the representative of the Estrada government, applies for recognition as monister, the request will be granted.

GOLD CAMP ALDERMAN INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Dec. 12.—Harry La Croix, city alderman for the third ward, and one of the proprietors of the Cripple Creek District laundry, was severely burned early tonight in an explosion of gasoline in the dry cleaning department of his establishment. His injuries, while severe, are not considered serious. The building, which is protected by insurance, was saved from destruction by the prompt work of the fire department.

RAID ON POKER DEN AT CRIPPLE CREEK

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Dec. 12.—A raid was made last evening by Officer Collins of the district attorney's force on a rooming house on Bennett avenue, conducted by J. W. Davis. A poker game was in full swing, but the players escaped through adjoining rooms, leaving chips, cards and some small cash behind them. The table and the chips and cards were seized, to be used in evidence.

IS THINNESS EMBARRASSING?

Undoubtedly It Is to Many a Maiden and Youth While Even Those Well Along in Years Prefer Well Rounded Figures.

Prescription Increases Weight.

A scrawny, gangling youth or maiden is almost invariably slighted, overlooked or ridiculed in any social gathering. There is something about a plump or well proportioned figure which attracts not only friendship, but love and adulation as well.

People with a proper amount of flesh are favored in all walks of life, while the thin are unblessed, unwelcome and frequently miserable for life. The difference lies in the power of the digestive functions and the ability of the blood and nerves to absorb and distribute over the body the nutrition extracted from the food eaten.

The thin person is abnormal and lacks the power to absorb and retain the flesh and fat elements which the gastric juices in the stomach and intestines should extract or separate from all kinds of food and drink.

A recent accidental discovery has proven that tincture cadomene when blended with certain other drugs, will add from one to three pounds of flesh per week during treatment, while the general health and strength also improves wonderfully.

Get in a half pint bottle, three ounces of essence of pepsin and three ounces of syrup of rhubarb: then add one ounce compound essence cardiol; shake and let stand two hours; then add one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom). Shake well and take a teaspoonful before and after meals, drinking plenty of water between meals and when retiring.

The True Value

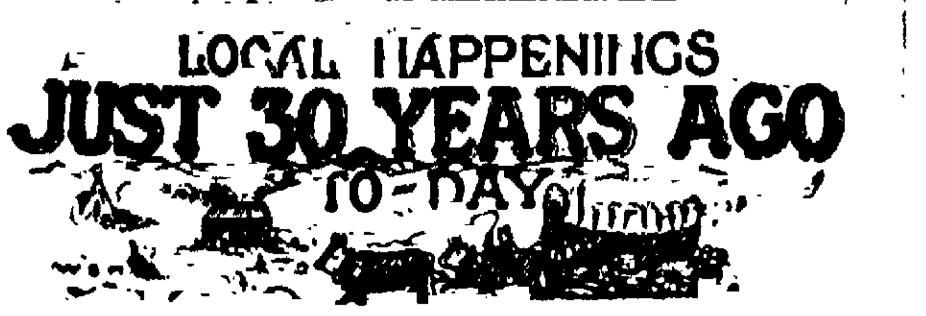

The true value of a gift lies in its appropriateness and the pleasure it gives to the recipient.

There is nothing that carries with it such a personal charm of true friendship as some article of jewelry—not necessarily expensive, yet bearing that stamp of "real value" that makes it a compliment to the recipient as exemplified in the donor's good taste.

Interstate Board

The appointments to the interstate commerce commission are to be made to fill the vacancies caused by the elevation of Mr. Knapp to the commerce court and the forthcoming retirement of former Senator Francis M. Cockrell of Missouri.

The commission will elect its new chairman. The members of the commission are Messrs. Clarke, Harlan, Clements, Lane and Prouty.

The commerce court is a court created in the amendment in the interstate commerce act passed in June last by this Congress. The law provides for the appointment of five additional circuit judges by the President, who are to constitute the court, and no two of whom shall be appointed from the same judicial circuit.

The judges so appointed are to serve on the commerce court after being relieved from that service are to be assigned to work on the circuits as circuit judges.

The law requires the president to designate in the first appointments the term of years during which the judge appointed shall serve on the commerce court and the judge designated to sit for five years on this court is to act as the presiding judge. Thereafter the court is to be composed of five judges to be designated by the supreme court from the circuit judges of the United States.

This court is thus composed of the present chairman of the interstate commerce commission, two United States district judges, one judge of the United States court of customs appeals, who was formerly a United States district judge, and one judge from the appellate court of Illinois.

REALTY DEALERS TO MEET THIS EVENING

Will Postpone Election of Officers Pending Proposed Civic Consolidation.

The annual meeting and dinner of the Real Estate exchange will be held tonight at the Alta Vista hotel. According to an officer of the organization, there will probably be no change in the program as outlined several days. This program calls for the dinner at 6:30 o'clock, and the business to follow at 8 o'clock.

Because of the proposed merger of civic organizations into one central body, there is strong probability that the Real Estate exchange will postpone the election of officers for the ensuing year, and name a committee, instead, to confer with committees from other organizations, to discuss the question of consolidation.

Several important matters, it is understood, are to be taken up at the meeting, besides the proposed merger.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by all dealers.

MISS HAZEL BANEY WEDS HENRY A. LINDENSCHMIDT

Henry A. Lindenschmidt and Miss Hazel J. Baney, both of Colorado Springs were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, 425 East Boulder street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. S. Wilson, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. It was a quiet wedding and only the immediate family and a few friends were present. The bride wore a gown of white mohair trimmed with silk and pearls, and carried lilies-of-the-valley. After the wedding ceremony refreshments were served. The young couple are well-known in the city.

MANY COURT CASES UP

Several cases were tried before Police Magistrate Starrett yesterday morning, as a result of the raid on the Kennebec early Sunday morning. Some of the results are. Effie Holliman, fined $20 and costs, committed. William Ewing, Ethel Ryan and Noel McFarland, $20 and costs each, $10 of which was remitted, paid and prisoners released. Roy McAllister and Viola Merritt, tried and will be sentenced tomorrow.

Charles Poe, proprietor of the Kennebec, charged with running a gambling house and a disorderly house; William Clark, Samuel Romie and C. J. Miller, all charged with gambling, will be tried tomorrow.

The Arab Amusement association, whose membership is largely confined to boys was up for investigation and the evidence showed that there has been gambling in the way of side bets on pool games. The court raked the proprietor over the coals for tolerating such a thing among minors. He assessed a fine of $20 and costs but suspended the fine with the distinct understanding that gambling of all kinds must stop in the club, and that if the offense is repeated he will inflict a severer penalty.

Five drug store proprietors were also arrested for violation of the liquor laws. These cases will probably be turned over to the district attorney. The drug stores affected are Gillaspy's Robbins, and Holmes', all on Huerfano street, and Martin's and the Pike's Peak Pharmacy, on Pike's Peak avenue.

WILL ARRANGE A CONFERENCE

SUBCOMMITTEE ON DIVORCE EVIL NAMED.

Springs Meeting to Be Statewide in Scope — Legislation to Be Urged Later.

The marriage and divorce question, from the physical, legal, sociological and religious points of view, will be carefully considered by the committee recently appointed to investigate this subject, before any steps are taken toward recommending legislation to rectify present bills. This was made plain at a meeting of the committee in the home of Dr. W. F. Slocum yesterday, when a subcommittee of five, composed of one physician, one lawyer, one sociologist and two ministers was named to arrange for a conference of specialists at which the matter can be thoroughly threshed out. The members of this committee are: Dr. A. C. Magruder, Attorney A. H. Smith, Frank J. Bruno, the Rev. E. H. Liles and the Rev. George B. Stewart.

It appeared to be the consensus of opinion at the meeting that a number of specialists should be present at the proposed conference. With this in view the subcommittee named will meet Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A., where details for the conference will be arranged. This conference, while it will be in a way local, will not be confined to residents of Colorado Springs. Invitations will be sent out to the leading ministers, lawyers and physicians of the state to be present.

It is believed that by going slowly in the matter, rather than by rushing in blindly and demanding legislation, better results will be obtained, since it is not known definitely just what kind of legislation is needed. Later there will be a general conference, at which the final details of action will be agreed upon.

The meeting yesterday afternoon was well attended. Besides a large number of the members of the Ministerial association, Dr. W. H. Swan, A. H. Smith and F. J. Bruno were present.

The Rev. George B. Stewart, president of the Ministerial association here, who is in Denver today, will visit Dr. Wilcox, president of the Denver Ministerial association, and discuss the progress being made against the divorce evil.

MEET SOON TO ARRANGE FOR HAVENS ADDRESS

No definite arrangements have been completed for the meeting to follow the monthly dinner of the Winter Night club at the Antlers hotel, December 29. The speaker is Munson Havens, manager of the Cleveland, chamber of commerce, who will tell of the work to be accomplished by one central civic organization in a city, and what has been done along this line by the organization in his home town.

Since the announcement that Mr. Havens is to speak, a large number of business men not members of the club, have stated their desire to hear the speaker. For this reason plans are now under consideration for a meeting to be held in a larger hall than the banquet room, following the dinner, and to which outsiders can be admitted.

Leonard E. Curtis, in charge of arrangements for the meeting, will call a meeting of the executive board within a few days, at which time some definite plan of action will probably be decided.

NOT ENTITLED TO SEAT ON THE SUPREME BENCH

A decision of the court of appeals of Colorado, in 1895 stands between W. N. Ruby of this city and the seat on the supreme bench of the state made vacant by the death of Chief Justice Steele. By the decision, if the election is not one for which the law provides definitely the people cannot be supposed to have any knowledge of it and so they cannot vote for what does not legally exist. Since the law had not definitely provided for the particular situation made by the death of the chief justice and since no official issued a call for an election to fill the vacancy it is held that no one could be elected to it.

The case in question in 1895 was that of A. N. Dix against James H. Kerwin, both of Lake county.

The first five named were elected while the last five were appointed last night.

ANOTHER PROGRAM GIVEN BY C. S. MUSICAL CLUB

The Colorado Springs Musical club presented another program during the meeting yesterday afternoon at the Acacia hotel. Miss Gordon gave the opening piano number, "Kunster Leben," Strauss-Schuett. A violin and clarinet duet was played by Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair, a Vieuxtemps composition, with Mrs. Hemus at the piano. The contralto solo, "Che Faro Senza Euridice," Gluck, was sung by Miss Comstock; Bach's sonata in G, for two violins and piano, was played by Miss Trott, Miss Manning and Mrs. Hemus. The closing number was the cantata for women's voices, "La Demoiselle Elue," DeBussy. Dr. Woolsey was director, Mrs. Seldomridge, soloist, and the chorus included Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Rouse, Miss Sweeney, Miss Rhett, Miss Baker, Miss Comstock and Miss Cross. Miss Johnson was at the piano.

Mrs. George B. Tripp, president of the club, announced that the next program would be given January 9, 1910. As there are organ numbers the meeting will be held in Perkins hall. Mrs. Tripp urged that each member endeavor to obtain one new member for the club. There are now 150 members and in a city of this size there should be at least twice that number. Notwithstanding the fact that the holidays are so near, there was an excellent attendance yesterday afternoon.

WONDERFUL CURE OF SORE HANDS

Skin Peeled and Flesh Got Hard and Broke — Blood Flowed in Fifty Places — "Single Box of Cuticura Ended Suffering."

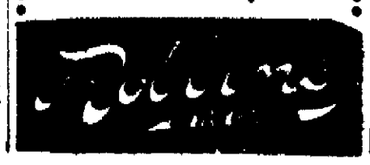

"About eleven years ago I was troubled with sore hands, so sore that when I would put them in water the pain would very nearly set me crazy, the skin would peel off and the flesh would get hard and break. There would be blood flowing from at least fifty places on each hand. Words could never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried everything that I was told to use for fully three years, but could get no relief. I tried at least eight different doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, as my hands were as bad when I got through doctoring as when I first began. I also tried many remedies but none of them ever did me one cent's worth of good. I was discouraged and heartsore. I would feel so bad mornings when I got up to think I had to go to work and stand the pain for ten hours, and I often felt like giving up my position.

"Before I started to work mornings I would have to wrap every finger up separately, so as to try and keep them soft and then wear gloves over the rags to keep the grease from getting on my work. At night I would have to wear gloves in bed. In fact I had to wear gloves all the time. After doctoring for three years and spending much money, a single box of Cuticura Ointment ended all my sufferings. It's been eight years since I used any and I don't know what sore hands are now and never lost a day's work while using Cuticura Ointment." Thomas A. Clancy, 310 N. Montgomery St., Trenton, N. J., Nov. 11, 1909.

WILLIAM H. BANCROFT GETS WORDS OF PRAISE

Fine Arts Journal of Chicago, Lauds Colorado Springs Artist and Sign Painter.

William H. Bancroft, the Colorado Springs sign writer is gaining an enviable reputation as a landscape artist. He has done a number of views of scenes in the Pikes Peak region, and his work is made the subject of a special article in a recent number of the Fine Arts Journal, published at Chicago.

He now has a number of canvases on exhibition at 123½ East Pikes Peak avenue.

Under the title, "Modern Art and Artists," the Fine Arts Journal has the following to say of Mr. Bancroft's work:

"In our exhibition of works by American artists every now and again we find a breath of the mountains of the far west and an atmosphere of the plains. But good works delineating the unsurpassed grandeur of the silver-crested sentinels that for ages have kept their silent and sublime watch o'er the 'canons grown with pines and folded deep in golden mountain sides,' or the 'airy sweeps of mighty landscape, lying all alone like some deserted world,' tempt not the native artist as they should, so when one of the latter, who has made a daily study for the best portion of his life, of the 'mellow sun' by day and the 'mellow moon' by night, tells the story of the ever-varying song that nature has sung for ages, and tells it with the inspiration of the poet, the western mountain realm of this vast continent becomes to the lover of art a something that should thrill his heart with patriotic fervor and pride, for it is a representation of 'rocks and rills' and 'woods and templed hills,' comprising the land of the noble free.

"A few, and they are very few in comparison of our American artists, live in or adjacent to this 'paradise below.' They drink in its grandeur as well as its more tender beauty; they live in its atmosphere and imbibe its suggestion of stability, sincerity and truth, but the pictures they paint are rarely found in our own exhibitions or private collections. We are gradually becoming familiar with the names of these patriotic artist sons of the west, although some of their best endeavors and canvases from which leaps forth the delight, the inspiration of the creator of the picture, have for years been crossing the ocean and finding their way into foreign collections, and setting the foreign artists to wonder why the American art student elects to remain abroad and paint that with which he is unfamiliar, while there is more grandeur and beauty in the scenery of his native land."

and fines aggregating $17,500 were imposed.

Prosecutions of the sugar trust for frauds upon the government in the weighing of raw sugar recovered for the government $3,135,363.88. Convictions and sentence of individuals, still fresh in the public mind, were secured.

Actions Pending or Under Way.

Most extensive of all frauds against the government yet discovered are those in the undervaluations of imports into the United States. The extent of the treasury losses can only be conjectured. Every step of the investigation shows fresh losses.

There are now suits under way to recover $700,000, of which the customs revenue is said to have been defrauded in imports of cheese and figs from Mediterranean ports, indictments are pending and some convictions have been secured. A highly-organized system to defraud the government has been disclosed.

More than 30 individual indictments are pending against persons charged with smuggling with "sleeper trunks." Offers of compromise and prayers for immunity are in the hands of the attorney general from several firms of importers who have confessed to frauds in undervaluation.

"The conditions disclosed seem to indicate a very general practice of undervaluation," says the attorney general, "and a very lax administration of the customs laws in the past, which has subjected the government to a very material loss of revenue. A general investigation into the subject of frauds by undervaluation has only commenced, and this branch of the subject will now be pressed vigorously."

Customs Revenue Defrauded.

The attorney general recommends that a general immunity statute, such as exists under the interstate commerce laws, should be enacted to apply to criminal prosecutions generally, but says such a statute should only protect a witness from the consequences of the testimony he is about to give.

Twenty-five criminal indictments, charging rebating and other discriminations, are pending against railroads, private corporations and individuals. Two convictions with fines were secured during the year.

Land Irregularities.

Land frauds are probably entitled to place with the customs frauds and violations of the anti-trust law. The department won signal victories during the year against unlawful fencing of the public domain. In 98 civil suits and 38 criminal prosecutions more than 400,000 acres of land illegally fenced were restored to the government.

Prosecutions against the Oregon and California Railroad company and 45 other defendants, to recover 2,300,000 acres of land valued at $60,000,000, which the government claims are illegally held, are now pending.

There are also under way 24 suits against the Central Pacific Railway company and others to recover thousands of acres of valuable lands which the government contend were illegally patented, probably with the private knowledge that they were valuable for the mineral and oils underneath.

In the department's campaign against bucket shops, 350 places were closed, others voluntarily closed as a result of the crusade and indictments are pending against men and corporations and the telegraph company, which allowed the use of its wires.

The bureau of investigation, which has built up an efficient secret police, began raids on firms charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. The attorney general recommends legislation to permit the agents of that bureau to administer oaths and serve processes.

$15,371 Criminal Cases in Year.

During the year there were 15,371 criminal cases of all sorts in the United States courts, which produced fines, forfeitures and penalties aggregating $1,088,974.

Mr. Wickersham recommends legislation to give the right of appeal in Indian cases, a law for the issue of search warrants for property stolen from the government; that federal judges be allowed traveling expenses within their own districts and that the salaries of all federal justices be increased. He also recommends that the statute of limitations in customs frauds be extended from three to five years. The attorney general also recommends legislation to permit the United States to sue and prosecute an offending corporation wherever that corporation may do business.

As a result of the attorney general's recent trip to Alaska, he presents some recommendations for the relief in that territory. Some law should be enacted to help the needy and deserving poor in that clime, he says. Under the present law, when a person is found with legs or arms frozen off or starved nearly to death, it is necessary to charge the invalid with vagrancy and have him committed in order to get treatment in a government hospital.

What the Press Agent Says

"A STUBBORN CINDERELLA" TONIGHT

Seldom have people anticipated with such pleasure the coming of any theatrical attraction than what seems to have been shown for the quality musical comedy, "A Stubborn Cinderella," the production that was the theatrical sensation during the past season. Its phenomenal run at the Princess theater, Chicago, for one solid year, where it received the unanimous verdict from the dramatic critics as the best musical comedy ever produced, and the six consecutive months that it played to capacity business at the Broadway theater, New York, and its successful runs in Boston and Philadelphia, is proof of its great amusing powers.

The attraction with its original production will be presented at the Opera House tonight only. A notable cast is headed by the clever comedian, Colt Albertson, Hazel Kirke and a chorus which is exceptionally capable both in singing and dancing. It is under the management of Charles A. Goettler, which fact adds the stamp of real quality.

Some of the big song hits are "When You First Kiss the Last Girl You Love," "I'm in Love With All the Girls I Know," "What's the Use?" "If They'd Only Let Poor Adam's Rib Alone," and "Adios Senorita." Hough, Adams and Howard are the authors of "A Stubborn Cinderella." Seats for the engagement are now on sale. The prices are: Parquet, $1.50; dress circle, $1.00; balcony, 75 cents and gallery, 50 cents.

"THE FORTUNE HUNTER"

Few plays come here so wreathed in the smiles of popular and critical approval as Winchell Smith's "The Fortune Teller," which Messrs. Cohan and Harris will bring to the Opera House Monday for one performance only. Both in New York and Chicago this fresh, delightful comedy of American life made immediate captives of press and public and its advent in this city will undoubtedly prove one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

The story of The Fortune Hunter is a pleasant tale that has a genuine charm for every native American. It bears its own testimony that it was written for the real. Its characters have a very decided affinity for the sentiments of everyone whose memory carries back to the little places that cluster in the laps of brook-drained, wooded hills away from the city where interest in one another is out of focus, shallow and impersonal. The play does not seduce the feelings with any heart-harrowing picture of misfortune. One never hears in it the faintest echo of the gypsy's warning; no betrayed girl staggers weepingly through its four happy acts; no dark-eyed stranger is seen in pursuit of startled innocence; no blank-cartridged revolver shatters the nerves as it blasts villainy with stage-death. Its only hint of distress is turned to pure comic use. It is as clean and wholesome as the breath of the meadows.

Nat Duncan in "The Fortune Hunter," struggles with the problem of acquiring a million dollars in a year's time, and his quest for wealth, accompanied by many humorous and pathetic situations, attracted capacity houses for one year in New York and nine months in Chicago. The comedy is by Winchell Smith.

Fred Niblo enacts the role of the "fortune hunter," Nat Duncan, and Miss Alma Belwin has the part of the crude country lass transformed by the fortune hunter's influence, and Frank Pacon portrays the mild, gray-haired inventor-druggist who, with the fortune hunter, is elevated from penury to affluence.

THE SONG WRITER AND THE AMERICAN BEAUTY

Vaudeville was distinctly the gainer when Melville J. Gideon and Miss Mabel M. Bunyea decided to link their theatrical fortunes and tour the country, illustrating for the benefit of the music loving populace how the author of many of the most sensational song hits of the present decade conceived that they should be played and sung.

Mr. Gideon is the author of such great popular songs, sung all over the globe as "The Grizzly Bear," "Oh, You Kid," and a hundred-odd others, and the way he spiels ragtime off the keys of a piano leaves one in no doubt as to how he comes to hit the popular fancy so effectively. His ragtime is ragtime that is ragtime, and if you have any idea that he has anywhere near exhausted his musical fertility just go to the Majestic this week and hear him sing his latest effort, "Beware," a sort of companion piece to The Grizzly Bear. Up to date, it has set every audience howling for more.

Miss Bunyea is an actress of fair ability, but it is her the mou-

MINISTERS OF CITY FORM ASSOCIATION

Rev. G. C. Crews President To Discuss Civic and Religious Topics.

To discuss civic and religious problems, and to be better organized for the coming anti-saloon campaign next spring, the ministers of the six Protestant churches of the city have organized the Colorado City Ministerial association. The organization will meet one Monday in each month and papers on a wide range of topics are to be read. The ministers in the association are. The Rev. G. C. Crews, president; the Rev. L. H. Root, secretary; the Rev. Willard McCarthy, the Rev. G. H. Stuntz, the Rev. H. C. Walker and the Rev. E. H. Cheadle. The first meeting of the organization was held yesterday.

The union meetings for the discussion of temperance topics are to be conducted under the auspices of the association, which plans to hold these meetings at least twice a month after Christmas. The next meeting will be held next Sunday evening at the Congregational church.

RELEASED ON CHARGE STEALING OWN BUGGY

S. D. Griffin, who was charged with stealing his own buggy from the rear of the Colorado City livery, was dismissed in Justice Irvin's court yesterday morning. Griffin had loaned his buggy to a friend, who put it in the livery stable for safe keeping, and he needed it. Griffin went to the barn and took it. W. M. Wolcott, proprietor of the barn, thought that the buggy was being stolen and had Griffin arrested.

MOORE GOT MORE THAN SUFFICIENT

Matt Moore, charged with the theft of a horse blanket several days ago, was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail yesterday afternoon in Justice Russell's court. Moore asked that he be given jail sentence which would allow him to get rid of "that whisky habit," to which he attributes his various troubles. When asked by Justice Russell if 60 days would be long enough to cure him, Moore answered that he thought 15 days would "help enough" in his case. Moore recently served a county jail sentence when he was convicted of stealing a box of tobacco from a Midland box car.

MAGISTRATE BROOKS ILL

Police Magistrate J. T. Brooks, an old-time resident of the city, is seriously ill at his home on Main street. He was taken ill Saturday night while at work, and relatives are greatly concerned about his condition. He has been in poor health for some time.

MILLMAN INJURED

A. C. Barnett, an employe in the cyanide department at the Golden [illegible] briquet of "The American Beauty." She has all the essentials in full measure, and in addition a stage presence that captivates her audiences. When it comes to singing songs with expression—not only in every word, but in every gesture glance and move—Miss Bunyea is there. Her good nature is infectious, her animation catching, her gowns elaborate and tasteful, her physical charms obvious.

There isn't much more to be said about either of these two except perhaps this—that their specialty tickles the public palate. See them if you can—and you will understand it and don't forget that all the best of the big Majestic shows are [illegible] class.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply at Small Cost.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly and will usually cure the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"THE DOLLAR PRINCESS" DELIGHTFULLY MUSICAL

"The Dollar Princess," book by Willner and Greenbaum, and music by Leo Fall, the Viennese composer, was produced at the Opera House last evening by Charles Frohman. A more meritorious musical play has not been seen in this city since the advent of "The Merry Widow," through "The Dollar Princess" does not in any sense supplant its more famous Austrian predecessor.

The strongest feature of "The Dollar Princess" is its music, which at times approaches that of operetta. Fall has composed some new themes of much originality and melody, airs which delight the ear somewhat in the manner in which those of Strauss, Auber and Planquette do. Falls orchestration is unusually good for this style of music, being carefully worked out, with much color, richness and ingenuity, and with an understanding for the possibilities of the various instruments in the modern theater orchestra. The local orchestra was augmented last evening by the company's musicians, which added greatly to the general effect of the performance.

The plot of "The Dollar Princess" is very slight indeed, and is not worthy of the music of the piece. However, Charles Frohman has supplied an excellent cast and chorus which go far towards making up for the lack of a substantial libretto. Whatever may have been the personnel of the original New York company, no one can complain of the organization which presented "The Dollar Princess" last night. Daphne Glenn as the dollar princess, Barbara Babington as Olga, the lion tamer, and Eileen Clanford as Daisy, were the leading feminine players who, not being burdened with much responsibility beyond the wearing of some rather unusual gowns of the latest modes, satisfied the audience.

Franklin Farnum has succeeded Donald Brian as Freddy Smythe, and surely his dances, songs, love-making and other bits of business were done fully as well as Brian ever did them. The comedians, Fred Lennox, John L. Kearney, Will C. Mandeville, Edward Gorman and Morgan Williams scored the "hits" of the acting performance. They all were funny, Lennox particularly so. William Greene made much of the Marquis. The chorus was large and of good appearance. The scenery was pleasing and the costumes elegant and varied.

Many persons find themselves affected with a persistent cough after an attack of influenza. As this cough can be promptly cured by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it should not be allowed to run on until it becomes troublesome. Sold by all dealers.

ALL ON BOARD ILL-FATED STEAMER OLYMPIA SAVED

VALDEZ, Alaska, Dec. 12.—All the passengers on the Alaska Steamship company's steamship Olympia, which went on the rocks at Bligh island, Prince William sound, Saturday night, were taken off the ship at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon together with the mails and baggage and were conveyed to Valdez and Ellemer.

Most of the passengers are here. Those at Ellemer are well cared for in the little village.

The Olympia left Cordova Saturday evening after unloading a large quantity of coal in her afterhold and soon ran into a fierce gale. The empty stern stood too high out of the water and in the tempest the ship became unmanageable and was spun about by the wind. About midnight she went hard and fast on the Bligh island reef.

Wireless Operator Hayes sent out the distress call which was picked up at Cordova and Valdez and also gave as much information of the wreck as he could for the water soon put out the fires and made the wireless unworkable. The government launch Donaldson from Fort Liscum and the steamer June left at once for Bligh island and took off the passengers without mishap to any of them. The crew also was saved.

It is hoped to save the freight on the Olympia, but it is feared that the vessel will be a total loss. There is a rock through her No. 1 hold.

LORIMER EXONERATED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The subcommittee of the Senate, which has been investigating the charges of bribery in connection with the election of Senator William Lorimer of Illinois, decided unanimously today that the testimony did not prove any of the charges made.

The committee took up the evidence in its entirety at an executive session. It canvassed the testimony, weighed the evidence and the arguments and took into consideration all the facts that have been advanced in connection with the charges concerning Lorimer's election. The members decided there had been shown no foundation for the charges that bribery had entered into the election.

The motion finally was offered to report to the full committee of the Senate.

On this motion there was no dissenting vote. Following this action the subcommittee's report could be prepared for the full committee at once and will be sent to the Senate within a short time.

A Badge of Honesty

is printed on the outer wrapper of every bottle of

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

and it is the only medicine for woman's peculiar ailments, sold by druggists, the makers of which feel fully warranted in thus taking the afflicted into their full confidence.

The more known about the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the more confidently will invalid women rely upon it to cure their peculiar weaknesses and derangements. There's no secrecy about its make-up—no deceptive inducements held out to the afflicted. It's simply a good, honest, square-deal medicine with no alcohol, or injurious, habit-forming drugs in its composition. Made wholly from roots. It can do no harm in any condition of woman's organism.

Devised and put up by a physician of vast experience in the treatment of women's maladies. Its ingredients have the indorsement of leading physicians in all schools of practice.

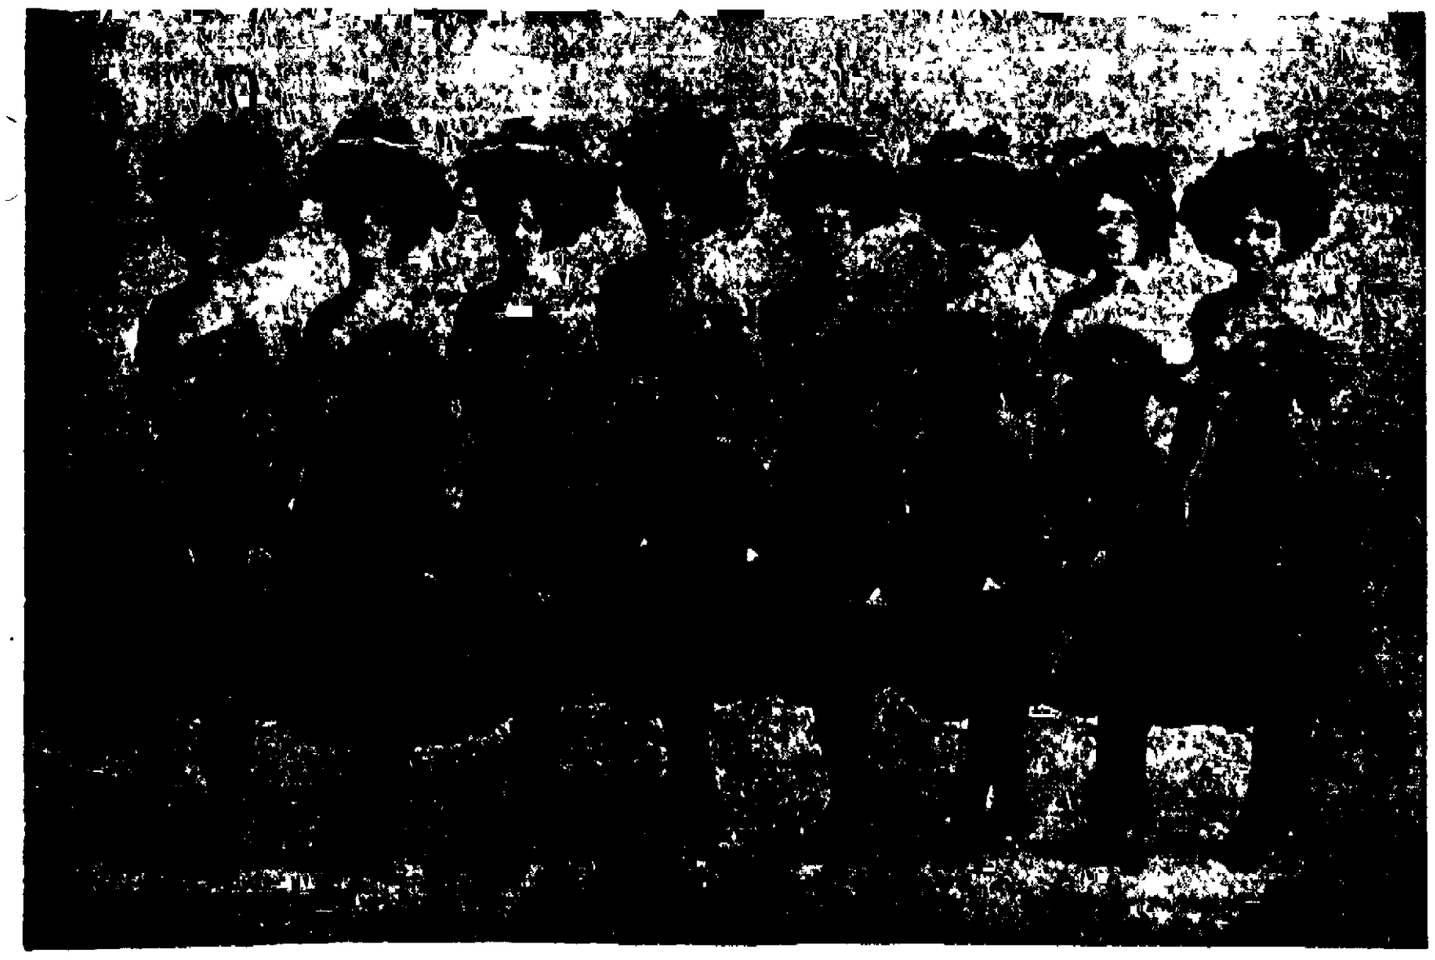

The "Favorite Prescription" is known everywhere as the standard remedy for diseases of women and has been so regarded for the past 40 years and more.

Accept no secret nostrum in place of "Favorite Prescription" a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, with a record of 40 years of cures behind it.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Favorite Prescription." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

"That the improvements to be made in Storm Sewer District No. 1 shall consist of the construction of district or main sewers and manholes, for storm drainage for all of said District. That after the construction of said district or main sewers and manholes in said Storm Sewer District No 1, the council will, as circumstances may require, provide separately for the construction of catch basins, connections with main sewer, and all other necessary appurtenances for complete storm drainage in and for the whole or a part of sub-districts numbered A and B. In behalf of which additional work, new and additional proceedings will be taken, additional and new approximate estimates of the costs will be made and due notice will be given as provided for by the ordinances of the city relating to public improvements.

"That the probable cost, as shown by the total estimate of the engineer, of the district or main sewers and manholes in Storm Sewer District No. 1 is $40,448.30, and that the maximum share of said total estimate that will be assessed upon any lot or lands in the district will be as follows, to-wit: On a platted lot of 25 by 190 feet and containing 4,750 square feet, the assessment will be $32.82.' The shares will increase or diminish, as the case may be, in the proportion that the area of any lot or tract bears to 4,750 square feet.

"That to the said total estimate and to the respective shares thereof, or to so much of said estimate and shares as may be required to pay the actual cost of said sewers; there will be added all general expenses, including engineering, advertising, etc., and there will also be added six per centum for costs of collection and other incidentals, and there will also be added interest at the rate of six per centum per annum on the bonds issued from time to time, in payment of said total cost, said interest to run from the time of issue of said bonds, in payment of the general expenses and other costs of said improvements, to the time the first installment of the assessment becomes due.

"That said assessment shall be due and payable without demand within thirty days from and after the final passage of the ordinance, assessing the whole cost against said real estate; providing, however, that any owner who shall pay his full assessment within said period of thirty days may receive a discount of six per centum, added for cost of collection, etc., and also a discount on such payment, at six per centum per annum from the date of said payment to the time the first installment is payable, or in default thereof, in ten equal annual installments of principal, with interest at six per centum on unpaid installments, the first of said installments shall be due and payable upon the next succeeding date after the passage of said assessing ordinance upon which general taxes or the first installment thereof, are by the laws of this state made payable, and the remainder of said installments shall be due and payable successively on the same day of each year thereafter until paid in full.

"That a map of the district to be assessed showing the location of the proposed sewer mains and manholes, from which map the approximate share of said total cost that will be assessed upon each piece of real estate in the district may be readily ascertained; the estimates of the engineer and all proceedings of the council in the premises are on file and can be seen and examined by any person interested, at the office of the City Engineer at any time during business hours on or before and until eleven o'clock a. m. on the 28th day of December, 1910; on which day and at said hour the council will hear at the Council Chamber in the City Hall, all complaints and objections concerning the proposed sewers and appurtenances that may be made by the owners of any real estate to be assessed, or by any person interested.

"That the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to cause to be published for ten days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city, a notice directed to the property owners and all persons interested in the said improvements, without naming them, which notice shall recite the substance of this resolution and notify said property owners of the time and place when a hearing will be had as herein provided for."

As directed by said resolution, I hereby notify you that on the 28th day of December, at the hour of eleven o'clock a. m., at the council chamber in the City Hall, a hearing will be had by the council as provided in said resolution, and that at said time and place you may present your views concerning any and all matters pertaining to said district and the improvements proposed to be made therein.

ROOSEVELT TUNNEL AGAIN IN WET ROCK

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK Colo., Dec. 12.—A change was reported in the formation in the heading of the deep drainage tunnel this morning, and water was exuding from the drill holes with such force that the machine drill men and helpers were compelled to wear oil skins. For some days past the heading has been driven in a blocky phonolite, dry as a bone. The flow from the portal has somewhat increased, and when today's round of shots are fired it is expected still more water will be released. President Frank G. Peck of the tunnel company accompanied by Engineer T. R. Countryman visited the tunnel workings today.

Smelting Grade Ore.

Settlement has been made with the Rubie Mining and Leasing company by one of the local sampling companies on a small sacked shipment weighing slightly in excess of 6,000 pounds, at the rate of 23.41 ounces gold, or $468.20, to the ton. This ore was mined at the ninth level of the Rubie mine on Bull hill, owned by the Princess Alice Gold Mining company. The operating company is one of the Humphreys-Thompson syndicate concerns. The same company loaded out a car of two ounce ore from the mine yesterday.

To Sink Hiawatha Shaft.

The Metallic Gold Mining company, Richard Blanchard, general manager, will shortly resume sinking in the main Hiawatha shaft, now 211 feet deep. The shaft, a two-compartment affair, is to be sunk an additional 200 feet. In addition to the work prosecuted by the Metallic G. M. company holding a bond and lease on the property, four sets of sublessees are at work and are making ocasional shipments. The property is located on the southwestern slope of Beacon hill adjoining the El Paso estate.

To Deepen the Ophir Shaft.

John T. Hawkins, manager of the Jennie Sample company's properties on Raven hill, will shortly let a contract for 200 feet of sinking in the Ophir shaft, adjoining the Jennie Sample estate. Under the settlement arrived at between the Jennie Sample management and Mrs. J. J. Cone, administratrix of the Cone estate, by which costly litigation was averted, the Jennie Sample company was given perpetual right to operate through the Ophir shaft. The present depth of the shaft, an incline, is 940 feet, and it is proposed to sink the shaft an additional 200 feet.

Deerhorn Shipping.

Teams were busy this morning loading out ore from the Deerhorn mine on Globe hill, owned by the Stratton estate. The mine is under lease to William Fitts of Colorado Springs.

BEARISH NEWS BUT WHEAT MOVEMENT UP

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Reports that prospects were decidedly unfavorable for an average crop in Oklahoma or the south and west parts of Kansas tended today to advance the price of wheat. A speculative advance in Liverpool had also considerable effect. The close here was at a net gain of ⅛c to ¼@⅜c. All the other leading staples showed losses, corn finishing ⅛c to ⅜c down, oats off ⅛@¼c to ⅜@½c, and provisions 12½@15c to 37½c.

Rising quotations for wheat were in the face of an unusual array of bearish news. World shipments were much larger than a year ago and there was said to be an increase of 84,554,000 bushels in the Russian yield as compared with the previous 12 months. The United States visible supply, though seemingly exhibiting a decrease, did not include a total of nearly 5,000,000 bushels in boats at Buffalo, Duluth and Canadian terminal harbors. News favoring the bear side, however, a downpour in Texas not expected, had no weight on the market as there was no important selling pressure.

On the other hand, according to one authority, 50 per cent of the wheat in 4,500,000 acres of Kansas and Oklahoma has not germinated and of the plants that have sprouted 15 to 20 per cent are dead. Largely because of this alleged handicap to the winter crop, the close was not far from the top figures of the session. May fluctuated between 95¼c and 96⅝c, a net gain of ⅜c.

Corn started strong but eased later. May ranged from 47⅝c to 47¾@⅞c, with the close ⅛c net lower at 47⅝c. Cash corn was weak. No. 2 yellow finished at 51@51¼c.

In oats shorts helped prices up early but receipts at primary markets were more than double last year. Accordingly weakness followed. May varied from 33⅞c to 34⅜c, and in the end was ⅛c off at 33⅞c@34c.

Business in hog products was decidedly on a big scale. Last sales, pork down 35c to 37½c; lard off 12½@15c to 15c, and ribs at a decline of 15@17½c to 20c.

STRIKE NEWS PUTS PRICES ON DECLINE

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Against its fairly firm undertone during the greater part of the session, the outcome of today's stock market was unimportant. Trading was light and mainly confined to the better known speculative leaders. The market opened irregular with pronounced weakness in the Harriman issues, U. S. Steel and the other metal issues. Following the general recovery in a movement led by the coal stocks, the list held fairly well until the final hour, when reports of another meeting of the steel and iron interests and advices from Chicago stating that a large majority of the engineers employed on the western roads had voted to strike, sent prices of active issues to the lowest level of the day and caused a weak closing.

The grain movement in the west continues to be of moderate proportions, although last week's receipts at Chicago, amounting to 5,111,000 bushels, is an increase of almost 1,117,000 bushels over the previous week. The western money market shows a stiffening, but this tendency is attributed to increasing business in many ways. Keen competition for $1,161,000 South African gold received in London resulted in an advance of [illegible] division of the metal, $1,[illegible],000 going to Berlin, the balance being equally distributed between the Bank of England and India. There was no fresh American demand for the gold, [illegible] recent rumors to that effect.

Domestic exports for last week showed fairly large increases in shipments of corn and cotton, with an extraordinary falling off in wheat. Shipments of the metal were over $,175,000 bushels below [illegible]. Total exports of foodstuffs for the 11 months of the calendar year are less by over $66,11_,000 than in the [illegible] period last year.

The bond market was [illegible]. Total sales, par value, $3,207,000. U. S. bonds were steady.
